

Panels for the 4th Biennial Hellenic Observatory PhD Symposium on Contemporary Greece

Hellenic Observatory, European Institute, LSE

June 25-26, 2009

Thursday 25th June

SESSION I (12:00 – 13:30)

Panel 1 – History I: Economic Trends & Intellectual Production

Room: U210, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Philip Carabott, King's College London

Jason Leech King's College London, UK	Elusive Wounds . A problematised snapshot of the brava gente myth: 'good' Italian and 'bad' German occupiers in Greece (1941-44)
Vassilios A. Bogiatzis National Technical University of Athens, Greece	D. Glinos vs. 'archive of philosophy' [arxeion filosofias]: Appropriating technology and science within interwar crisis.
Angelos A. Chotzidis Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	The impact of the Ottoman public debt administration on the economies of Epirus, Macedonia and Thrace (1881-1912): A first approach.

Panel 2 – Economic Psychology & Experimental Economics

Room: U208, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Vassilis Monastiriotis, Hellenic Observatory, London School of Economics

Constantinos Theodoridis Manchester Metropolitan University, UK	Making strategic decisions under uncertainty in complex settings: The case of retail location decisions.
Panagiotis Gkorezis Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	The impact of extrinsic rewards on nurses' psychological empowerment: The case of health care in Greece.
Georgios Kyriakopoulos Panteion University of Athens, Greece	Underestimating the economic value of information: The paradigm of Greek students valuating visual artworks.
Gerhard Riener University of Essex, UK	Explaining antagonism towards out-groups: The case of the Greek riots.

Panel 3 – Educational Practice & Social Positioning

Room: U201, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Anna Traianou, Goldsmiths University of London

Eleni Stamou Institute of Education, University of London, UK	Multiple inequalities, ambiguous positionings: Intersections of 'gender', 'race', 'class' and 'age' in the formation of female youth identifications.
Vasiliki Mpouratzi University of the Aegean, Greece	'Tensions' in 'home'-'school' relations: the politics of difference in a local 'community' of the Aegean.
Alexandra Tsitlakidou University of Essex, UK	How can teacher's communication style along with parental support create positive attitudes towards English to Pontiac Greek students in Greek junior high schools?
Andri Loizidou & Mary Koutselini University of Cyprus, Cyprus	Teachers' and students' metacognition: Is there a relation?

Panel 4 – Culture, Language & Politics

Room: U110, Tower 1

Chair: Prof. Dimitris Tziovas, University of Birmingham &
Dr Dimitris Papanikolaou, University of Oxford

Christina Delistathi Middlesex University, UK	Translation and political objectives: preliminary findings from the translations of the Communist Manifesto into Greek, 1919-1951.
Christiana Mygdali University of Oxford, UK	Cultural resistance under the Junta (1967-1974): Translation and the pursuit of absurdity.
Eleni Ganiti Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	The military dictatorship of April 1967 in Greece and its repercussion on the Greek visual art scene.
Panagiota Charalambous King's College London, UK	Mapping the field of literature education: conceptualizations of the 'national canon' and its pedagogies in Greek-Cypriot educational policy discourses.

Panel 5 – Social Capital & Local Governance

Room: U108, Tower 1

Chair: Prof. Achilleas Mitsos, University of the Aegean

Despoina Grigoriadou, De Montfort University, UK	The dynamics of local partnerships in Greece: The case of Equal and Leader community initiatives.
Panagiota Karametou Harokopio University of Athens, Greece	The causal nexus between social capital and local development in mountain rural Greece
Evi Georgaki, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	The case of local government organizations (OTA) maladministration.

Panel 6 – Media & Communication

Room: U103, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Mirca Madianou, University of Cambridge

Polyxeni (Jenny) Palla Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	Website interactivity in the Greek context.
Christiana Karayianni University of Sussex, UK	The internet as a medium for bi-communal communication in Cyprus.
Othon Alexandrakis Rice University, USA	Anarchism and the new Greek civil society: Examining the rise of modern Athenian youth politics.
Katerina Penna Cardiff University, UK	Watching TV serial dramas: Culture, modernity and everyday life in modern Greece.
Evangelos Liotzis National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	Interactive porn networks in Greece: Conceptualizing a certain kind of civil society.

Panels for the 4th Biennial Hellenic Observatory PhD Symposium on Contemporary Greece

Hellenic Observatory, European Institute, LSE

June 25-26, 2009

Thursday 25th June

SESSION II (14:30 – 16:00)

Panel 1 – Communities, Minorities & Human Rights

Room: U210, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Pavlos Eleftheriadis, University of Oxford

Theofania Antoniou Panteion University of Athens, Greece	EU and promotion of human rights in the member states: Do we need an internal control mechanism? The case of Greece.
Nikolas Kyriakou European University Institute, Italy	Political representation of minorities under the ECHR system: The case of Greece.
Eleni Kalampakou Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	Greek citizenship and national minority identity in court: A case against cultural pluralism and democracy.
Nayia Kamenou King's College London, UK	The construction of national identity, gender and sexuality in Cyprus, and the role of European human rights for LGBTQ people.

Panel 2 – Cyprus & the EU

Room: U103, Tower 1

Chair: Dr James Ker-Lindsay, Hellenic Observatory, London School of Economics

George Kyris University of Manchester, UK	Europeanization, EU enlargement and the Turkish-Cypriot community.
Constantinos Adamides University of Birmingham, UK	Routines, securitization and the European Union impact on ethnic conflicts: The case of Cyprus.
George Koukoudakis National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	European integration and the limits of the realist paradigm: The case of Cyprus membership in the EU.
Hara Parla University of Cyprus, Cyprus	Europeanization and national parliaments: The case of the committee of European affairs of the house of representatives of the Republic of Cyprus.

Panel 3 – Educational Policy

Room: U201, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Nafsika Alexiadou, University of Keele

Despina Valassi University of Crete, Greece	The elite private schools in Greece.
Iakovos Tsiplakides University of Ioannina, Greece	Who learns English? An investigation of the relationship between parental socioeconomic status and students' performance in English as a foreign language in Greek state secondary schools.
Frances Tsakonas Institute of Education, University of London, UK	How to upgrade the Greek education system.

Isidora Kourti London School of Economics, UK	Contemporary challenges in Greek education for children with special needs: Collaborating in KDAY.
---	--

Panel 4 – Welfare State & Social Protection

Room: U208, Tower 1

Chair: Dr George Tsakos, University College London

Georgios Tzogopoulos Loughborough University, UK	A history of the National Fleet Fund.
Nasia Kapakidou Panteion University of Athens, Greece	The institution of occupational pension provision. The introduction of occupational funds in the Greek pension system (Law 3029/2002).
Evgenia Moukanou Democritus University of Thrace, Greece	Social care services for the elderly in Greece: Shifting the boundaries?
Antonis Roumpakis University of Bath, UK	The familistic welfare regime in crisis: The case of Greece.

Panel 5 – Political Parties I: Discourse & Ideology

Room: U110, Tower 1

Chair: Prof. Kevin Featherstone, Hellenic Observatory, London School of Economics

Georgios Papanagnou Panteion University of Athens, Greece	The Pan-Hellenic Socialist Movement: from populism to Europeanization. A discourse theory explanation of political party change.
Nikolaos Bilios National Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	Continuities and change in Greek political culture: PASOK's modernisation paradigm (1996-2003).
Nikos Christofis University of Leiden, The Netherlands	'ENOSIS' in the left discourse: EDA's talks in the Greek parliament.

Panel 6 – Domestic Policies & the EU

Room: U108, Tower 1

Chair: Prof. Achilleas Mitsos, University of the Aegean

Konstantinos Ioannidis Panteion University of Athens, Greece	The Fair Trade initiative in Europe and the challenges of Greek market.
Manto Lampropoulou National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	Public utilities reform in Greece: Privatization, market liberalization and implications for citizens as consumers.
Angelos Gkanoutas-Leventis City University, UK	Greek exchange rate policies for the EMU. The economy, the public and the Euro.
Charalampos Chrysomallidis National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	The application of the knowledge-based model of growth in Greece. The case of the inefficient national research policy.

Panels for the 4th Biennial Hellenic Observatory PhD Symposium on Contemporary Greece

Hellenic Observatory, European Institute, LSE

June 25-26, 2009

Thursday 25th June

SESSION III (16:30 – 18:00)

Panel 1 – Applied Economics

Room: U108, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Vassilis Monastiriotis, Hellenic Observatory, London School of Economics

Panagiotis Prontzas Panteion University of Athens, Greece	Consumption pattern: Empirical analysis in Greece and EU.
Gabriel Sakellaridis National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	An empirical investigation of social protection expenditures on economic growth in Greece.
Ioannis Neokosmidis Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	Volatility Modelling.
Aikaterini Kokkinou University of Glasgow, UK	Stochastic frontier analysis: Empirical evidence on Greek productivity.

Panel 2 – Foreign & Security Policy

Room: U103, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Othonas Anastasakis, SEESOX, University of Oxford

Dr Spyros Economides, Hellenic Observatory, London School of Economics

Athanasios Manis London School of Economics, UK	The Imia/Kardak crisis: A crisis in the Greek-Turkish relations or a media made crisis?
Marios Eftymiopoulos University of Crete, Greece	Challenging NATO's security operations in electronic warfare: The policy of cyber defence and the case of Greece.
Kyriakos Moumoutzis London School of Economics, UK	Greek foreign policy and Turkey's candidacy for EU membership: The Europeanization of national foreign policy?
Panayiotis Ghikas University of Dundee, UK	Greek foreign energy policy: Is it conflicting with EU energy security objectives?

Panel 3 – The Europeanisation of Domestic Policies & Politics

Room: U201, Tower 1

Chair: Prof. Kevin Featherstone, Hellenic Observatory, London School of Economics

Sotirios Zartaloudis London School of Economics, UK	Gender equality in Greek employment policy: A story of Europeanization?
Nikos Nyfoudis University of Crete, Greece	European youth networks: The case of Europeanization in Greece.
Thanai Simantiraki National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	The Europeanization of shipping policy in Greece: Evaluating the impact on the policy network.
Georgios Saragas University of the Aegean, Greece	Societies and federal systems: The debate about the EU's federal perspective. European identity and the non federal tradition member- states.

Panel 4 – Law & Citizenship

Room: U208, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Pavlos Eleftheriadis, University of Oxford

Ioanna Alexandropoulou University of Thessaly, Greece	Public property and property rights theory.
Christina Akrivopoulou Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	Public security versus privacy and autonomy: The Greek legislation on public surveillance.
Eftychia Achtsioglou Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	Sustainable development as an evolving legal term and its judicial review in Greek case law.
Themis Tsolakou Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	The Greek paradigm of citizenship is still conceived as a legal and political privilege of the sovereign state?

Panel 5 – Ethnicity, Immigration & Human Trafficking

Room: U210, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Gerasimos Konidaris, University of Sheffield

Nicolas Kazarian Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, France	Cyprus, European crossroads of minorities.
Inam Leghari University of the Aegean, Greece	Pakistani immigrants in Greece: From changing pattern of migration to Diaspora politics and transnationalism.
Paraskevi Boukli, Scholar of the A. S. Onassis Public Benefit Foundation, London School of Economics, UK	Human Trafficking in Greece: Media and legal constructions.
Rengina – Eleni Mantanika Paris 7 Diderot, France	Displacement and the visibility of the invisibles, transit- zones and the emergence of political public space.

Panels for the 4th Biennial Hellenic Observatory PhD Symposium on Contemporary Greece

Hellenic Observatory, European Institute, LSE

June 25-26, 2009

Friday 26th June

SESSION I (09:30 – 11:00)

Panel 1 – Political Parties II: Cleavages & Electoral Politics

Room: U203, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Dionyssis Dimitrakopoulos, Birkbeck College

Sofia Vasilopoulou London School of Economics, UK	Party-based Euro scepticism in Greece: the case of LAOS.
Yiannos Katsourides University of Cyprus, Cyprus	The mapping of Cyprus' political elite, 1988-2008.
Constantinos Pierides Panteion University of Athens, Greece	The change in social cleavages structure and electoral behaviour in modern Greece (1996 – 1997).
Costas Eleftheriou National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	'The uneasy 'symbiosis' '. Party factionalism and radical politics in Synaspismos/SYN (2003-2009).

Panel 2 – National & Regional Identities

Room: U210, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Rodanthi Tzanelli, University of Leeds

Adam Trusner University of Virginia, USA	The European Union and regional identity in Greece.
Michelangelo Paganopoulos Goldsmiths University of London, UK	The nationalist facade of two monasteries of Mount Athos.
Emmanouil Pratsinakis University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands	Is difference a privilege of the similar? Soviet, Greek and Albanian immigrants in Thessaloniki.
Foteini Kalantzi University of Macedonia, Greece	Multiculturalism in Greece: A discussion on potential social and cultural gains of ethnic diversity within the framework of national identity problematic.

Panel 3 – Political Economy

Room: U110, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Fragiskos Filippaios, University of Kingston

Theocharis Papadopoulos Athens University of Economics and Business, Greece	Corporate governance in Greece and its political determinants.
Triantafyllos Papafloratos Panteion University of Athens, Greece	Do corporate social responsibility initiatives influence the consumers?
Andreas Kornelakis London School of Economics, UK	Dual convergence or hybridisation? Institutional change across Greece and Italy in comparative perspective.
Georgios Moschovis Panteion University of Athens, Greece	Fiscal performance, budgetary process and corruption in Greece.

Panel 4 – Narratives & Unofficial Histories

Room: U208, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Alexandra Georgakopoulou, King's College London

Evangelia Kindinger Ruhr-University Bochum, Germany	'I can't wait to go back home!': Negotiating spaces of belonging in Greek American return narratives.
Evropi Chatzipanagiotidou University of Sussex, UK	'Unofficial' histories: the historical perspectives of the Left in the Cypriot Diaspora.
Janine Givati-Teerling University of Sussex, UK	Narratives of 'home' and 'belonging': Second-generation British Cypriots 'return home'.

Panel 5 – Responding to Change: the Banking Sector

Room: U108, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Prodromos Vlamis, University of Cambridge

Vivi Maltezou Lancaster University, UK	It's been a long time: A comparative analysis of job duration in banking.
Charalambos Samantzis University of Thessaly, Greece	Greek banks' internationalization strategies in south east Europe.
Georgia Giordani Christos Floros University of Portsmouth, UK	Adoption of internet banking in Greece.
Maksim Belitski University of Leicester, UK University of Milan, Italy	What drives competition between banks? Cross-country analysis of liberalised Greek and Cypriot banking.

Panels for the 4th Biennial Hellenic Observatory PhD Symposium on Contemporary Greece

Hellenic Observatory, European Institute, LSE

June 25-26, 2009

Friday 26th June

SESSION II (11:30 – 13:00)

Panel 1 – History II: The Enosis & the Greek Junta

Room: U110, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Stefanos Katsikas, Goldsmiths University of London

Andreas Karyos Institute of Commonwealth Studies, University of London, UK	EOKA and Enosis in 1955-59: Motive and aspiration reconsidered.
Alexios Alecou National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece	The influence of the Greek civil war on the division of the Greek-Cypriot community's local society.
Thomas Kyriakis University of Hamburg, Germany	The two plebiscites and constitutions of 1968 and 1973.
Alexandros Nafpliotis London School of Economics, UK	British Policy towards the Greek Colonels' regime, 1967-1974.

Panel 2 – Perceptions & Identities

Room: U108, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Rodanthe Tzanelli, University of Leeds

Assimina Gouma University of Salzburg, Austria	'I am not a migrant' – Confronting identities by Greeks in Austria.
Dimitrios Varvaritis King's College London, UK	Perceptions of Jews in the Greek state: From the Don Pacifico affair to the Shoah.
Irini Kadianaki University of Cambridge, UK	Coping with migration: Ruptures and resources in the life stories of migrants living in Greece.
Nicole Immig Free University of Berlin, Germany	'Forced migrations' in Greece and Turkey: The twisting way of historiography.

Panel 3 – Education & Social Exclusion

Room: U203, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Elias Avramidis, University of Exeter

Elena Papamichael Institute of Education, University of London, UK	Constructing an environment of harassment for an Indian boy: teachers' understandings of racism in the context of intercultural education in Greek-Cypriot primary schools.
Irene Katsama Democritus University of Thrace, Greece	Bullying in primary education: prevention through social work programmes.
Kallirroï Giannopoulou Democritus University of Thrace, Greece	Applied drama as a means of fighting social exclusion: An action research project in the contemporary Greek primary classroom.
Stavroula Valiande University of Cyprus, Cyprus	Application and evaluation of differentiation instruction in mixed ability classrooms.

Panel 4 – Business & Finance

Room: U210, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Fragiskos Filippaios, University of Kingston

Ioanna Giannoukou University of Patras, Greece	Investigate corporate performance, internationalisation and a location's competitiveness: Evidence from South Mediterranean European countries.
Ioannis Tsalavoutas University of Edinburgh, UK	Compliance with international financial reporting standards mandatory disclosure requirements and value relevance: The case of Greece.
Filippos Stamatiadis National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, UK	Governmental accounting reform in the Greek Public Hospitals: Some preliminary results of its implementation.
Irini Smaragdi Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece	EMU and FDI flows within EU selected countries.

Panel 5 – Employment & Social Relations

Room: U208, Tower 1

Chair: Dr Rebekka Christopoulou, Hellenic Observatory, London School of Economics

Achilleas Anagnostopoulos University of Birmingham, UK	Labour market flexibility in central Greece: Findings from workplace employment relations survey.
Christos Anagnostopoulos University of Salford, UK	Social responsibility & professional football in Greece: Some preliminary reflections.
Konstantinos Pappas University of Ioannina, Greece	Immigrants as rural labour force: A factor of demographic and economic revitalisation of rural Greece.
Charikleia Tzanakou Warwick University, UK	Researching the early career paths of Greek doctoral graduates of science and engineering who have studied in Greece and UK.