

ESRC/AHRB Cultural Industries Seminar Network

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

9th Seminar:

New Directions in Research: Substance, Method and Critique

Date: Thursday 11th and Friday 12th January 2007

Venue: Royal Society of Edinburgh, 22-26 George Street, Edinburgh

Programme

Thursday 11th January

12:00 Buffet Lunch

13:00 Introduction and welcome - Paul JEFFCUTT, Queens University

13:30 First session - 'Rethinking the Music Industry', Martin CLOONAN, Glasgow University and John WILLIAMSON, Paisley University
Chair: Mark PERCIVAL, QMUC

14:30 Coffee

15:00 Second session – 'The Supply and Location of Arts and Creative Industries – An Economic Perspective', Trine BILLE, Copenhagen Business School
Chair: Jeremy VALENTINE, QMUC

16:00 Coffee

16:30 Third Session - 'Intellectual Property Rights, Open Access and Content Distribution: The expansion of two tier content sectors?', Professor Christopher MAY, Department of Politics, Lancaster University Chair: Professor Paul JEFFCUTT, Queens University

17:30 Finish day one

19:30 Dinner: Point Hotel, 34 Bread Street

Queen Margaret University College
EDINBURGH

ESRC/AHRB Cultural Industries Seminar Network

Friday 12th January

9:30 Coffee

10:00 First session – ‘Morality of the Culture Industries and the Rentier Economy’,
Jeremy VALENTINE, Queen Margaret University College
Chair: David HESMONDHALGH, The Open University (Leeds University from April 2007)

11:00 Second session – ‘Opportunities and Obstacles: The Career Paths of Creative Industry Workers’, David LAING, University of Liverpool
Chair: Martin CLOONAN, Glasgow University

12:00 Buffet Lunch

13:00 Third session - 'Creative Industries Critique: Possibilities and Problems', David HESMONDHALGH, The Open University (Leeds University from April 2007)
Chair: John WILLIAMSON, Paisley University

14:00 Fourth session - 'Modelling the cultural industries', Professor David THROSBY, Economics Department, Macquarie University
Chair: Andy PRATT, LSE

15:00 Coffee

15:30 Roundtable - 'Economic probability or cultural possibilities?'
Chair: Professor Angela McROBBIE, Goldsmiths College

17:00 Conclusion - Andy PRATT, LSE & Paul JEFFCUTT, Queens University.
Finish day two