

Application for permission to publish

For Office Use Only (Order No.)

- Please complete this form if you wish to publish any material from our collections.
 - Please complete all relevant sections and sign the declaration.
- PLEASE NOTE
- It is illegal to publish any material in copyright without the copyright holder's permission. Copyright in photographs and other artistic works is particularly stringent.
 - We do not hold the copyright in all material in our collections, and we may ask you to prove that you have cleared copyright or made best efforts to do so. Please contact us for further details.

Part D: Declaration

If permission to publish is to be granted, you will need to:

1. have obtained consent to reproduce the images from the owner of any copyright in the original materials photographed, before an image can be supplied by us.
2. acknowledge 'The Library of the London School of Economics and Political Science' in the publication and give the reference number of the work(s) and page numbers where appropriate.
3. use the materials supplied by the Library only as specified in your request overleaf.

In addition, for electronic publication you will need to:

4. ensure images cannot be downloaded separately from the text.
5. clearly link a copyright statement to the image. (Exact text varies depending on the material used.)
6. reapply for permission to publish every 12 months, if you wish to continue using the image.

Permission may be withdrawn if these conditions are abused. You will be liable to indemnify the London School of Economics and Political Science for any loss due to infringement of these conditions.

I understand and will abide by the conditions of use detailed above
