

LSE Saw Swee Hock Southeast Asia Centre

LSE-Southeast Asia Early Career Researcher Network News

6 March 2020

View email in your browser

---

---

SEAC Upcoming Events

On 12th March 2020, ECR Network members Laura Antona (PhD Candidate, Department of Geography and Environment, LSE) and Dr Ying Hooi Khoo (Senior Lecturer, Department of International and Strategic Studies, University of Malaya), with Dorothy Ferary (PhD Candidate, UCL Institute of Education), will speak at LSE SEAC ECR Network event "Academic Freedom in Southeast Asia". More details can be found here.

On 19th March 2020, Dr. Annette M. Kim (Associate Professor, Sol Price School of Public Policy, University of Southern California) will be leading a SEADS seminar chaired by SEAC Director Prof. Hyun Bang Shin, on the subject of public space transformations in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. Further details can be found here.

On 20th March 2020, Dr. Annette M. Kim (Associate Professor, Sol Price School of Public Policy, University of Southern California) will follow up her talk the previous day on Ho Chi Minh City with a research masterclass for PhD students and Early Career researchers on conducting spatial ethnography and critical cartography. Further details of the masterclass, which will be chaired by SEAC Director Prof. Hyun Bang Shin, can be found here.

The Call for Panels for ASEAS 2020 conference is now open. SEAC will host the 2020 Association of Southeast Asian Studies (UK) Conference, celebrating ASEAS UK's 50th year. The conference is on the theme of Prosperity and Precarity in Southeast Asia and will take place at LSE on 4-6 September 2020. More information can be found here.

ECR Network News and Updates

ECR Network member Dr Do Young Oh (LSE) spoke at the LSESU Korea Future Forum 2020 "Korea's Ascent to the Global Stage". His intervention was about smart city policy in South Korea for the panel "The Fourth Industrial Revolution" in Korea.

On 24th February, ECR Network member Dr Gunjan Sondhi (Open University) spoke at the Institute of Coding's 2020 conference, 'Thinking Differently' on "International perspectives on diversity and inclusion in the IT sector".

On 3rd March 2020, Dr Mara Nogueira (Birkbeck University of London) undertook a teach-out on "Working-class Struggles in the Neoliberal City: the case of Belo Horizonte, Brazil" at the University of Cambridge.

---

New Publications and Media

ECR Network member Dr Do Young Oh (LSE) co-authored an article with Dr Nuno F da Cruz (LSE) and Nathalie Badaoui Choumar (LSE Cities) titled "The metropolitan scale", published on Cities.

ECR Network member Charles Dunst (LSE) has published a new article in Politico Europe titled "How Brexit could undermine human rights in Cambodia". He also co-authored an article with Hunter Marston (Australia National University) titled "Making the Most of US-ASEAN Ties, Even Without the Vegas Summit" published in The Diplomat.

ECR Network member Dr Evan A. Laksmana (CSIS Indonesia) published an article in The Diplomat titled "Indonesia, China, and the Natuna Linchpin".

---

Opportunities

University of Colorado
Boulder

Applications open for a non-tenure track full-time instructor position in Asian Studies at the Center for Asian Studies, University of Colorado Boulder.

The successful candidate will contribute to growing the Asian Studies program and maintaining the Center's undergraduate research publication, The Colorado Journal of Asian Studies. Preference will be given to candidates with teaching experience, field research, or experience living in Asia, and specializations that complement the Center's developing strengths in Southeast Asia, South Asia, and Southwest Asia.

More details can be found here.

SEAC offers a Seminar Series and Networking Grant, for which it considers applications on a rolling basis. The scheme is open to Centre Associates, LSE academic/research staff and LSE Early Career Researchers, including PhD students. Non-LSE ECRs are also encouraged to collaborate with LSE-based colleagues to apply for funding. The scheme is intended for seminar series, study groups or networking events focusing on social science issues relevant to Southeast Asia, aligning with one or more of SEAC's core research themes of urbanisation, connectivity and governance. You can find more info here. If you'd like to discuss an idea before applying, please feel free to get in touch with us at seac.admin@lse.ac.uk.

