

MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING: 40 YEARS ON AND THE FUTURE

Thursday 4 April 2019
Hong Kong Theatre, Clement House, Aldwych

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

09.30-10.25	Registration and tea/coffee (CLM.1.03 and CLM.2.02, Clement House, Aldwych)
10.30-10.40	Morning Session Opening Professor Alnoor Bhimani, Chair, London School of Economics & Political Science
10.40-11.40	Forty Years of Research in Management Control: A Partial Story of Pieces and Wholes Roland Speklé, Nyenrode Business University, Netherlands
11.40-12.30	Making a Virtue of Value Andrew Ring, Hitachi Capital UK
12.30-14.00	Lunch (4th Floor Restaurant, Old Building, Houghton Street)
14.00-15.00	Afternoon Session 40th Anniversary Lecture Management Accounting: Past, Present and Future David Otley, Lancaster University
15.00-15.45	Management Control in UK Innovation Companies Robert Luther, UWE, Bristol
15.45-16.15	Tea/Coffee break (CLM 2.02, Clement House, Aldwych)
16.15-17.30	Breakout Session: Management Accounting Tools: 40 Years on and Later
17.30-18.15	MARG 2019 Distinguished Practitioner Lecture Learning - From 40 Years ago into the Future Hilary Lindsay, ICAEW President, 2016-17
18.15-18.30	Close
18.30—20.00	Evening Reception (Senior Dining Room, 5th Floor, Old Building, Houghton Street)