

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

MSc Economics Offer Holder Session 10 June 2024

Prof. Dimitra Petropoulou
MSc Economics
Programme Director

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Plan for today's session

Introductions – meet our panel

The MSc Economics – programme
overview

Q&A – Your chance to find out more!

MSc Economics structure

- Papers 1-3: full unit core courses
- Econometrics (EC402)
- Microeconomics (EC411 or EC487)
- Macroeconomics (EC413)

- Paper 4: Option Courses (full unit or two Finance half units):
- Applied or Advanced Topics in Economics, or Finance

MSc Economics core teaching

Pre-sessional

Francesco Nava

Dmitry Mukhin

Ragvir Sabharwal

Microeconomics
EC411

Macroeconomics
EC413

Econometrics
EC402

Autumn Term

Francesco Nava

Matthias Doepke

Vassilis Hajivassiliou

Winter Term

Martin Pesendorfer

Rachel Ngai

Mark Schankerman

Ragvir Sabharwal

Economics option courses

EC421 International Economics

EC423 Labour Economics

EC424 Monetary Economics and Aggregate Fluctuations

EC426 Public Economics

EC427 The Economics of Industry

EC453 Political Economy

EC475 Quantitative Economics

EC476 Contracts and Organisations

EC428 Development and Growth

EC465 Economic Growth, Development, and Capitalism in Historical Perspective

GY426 Environmental and Resource Economics

Finance option courses

Three combinations:

Corporate Finance:

- FM431A: Corporate Finance A
- FM4T2: Applied Corporate Finance - Dissertation

Asset Markets and Fixed Income:

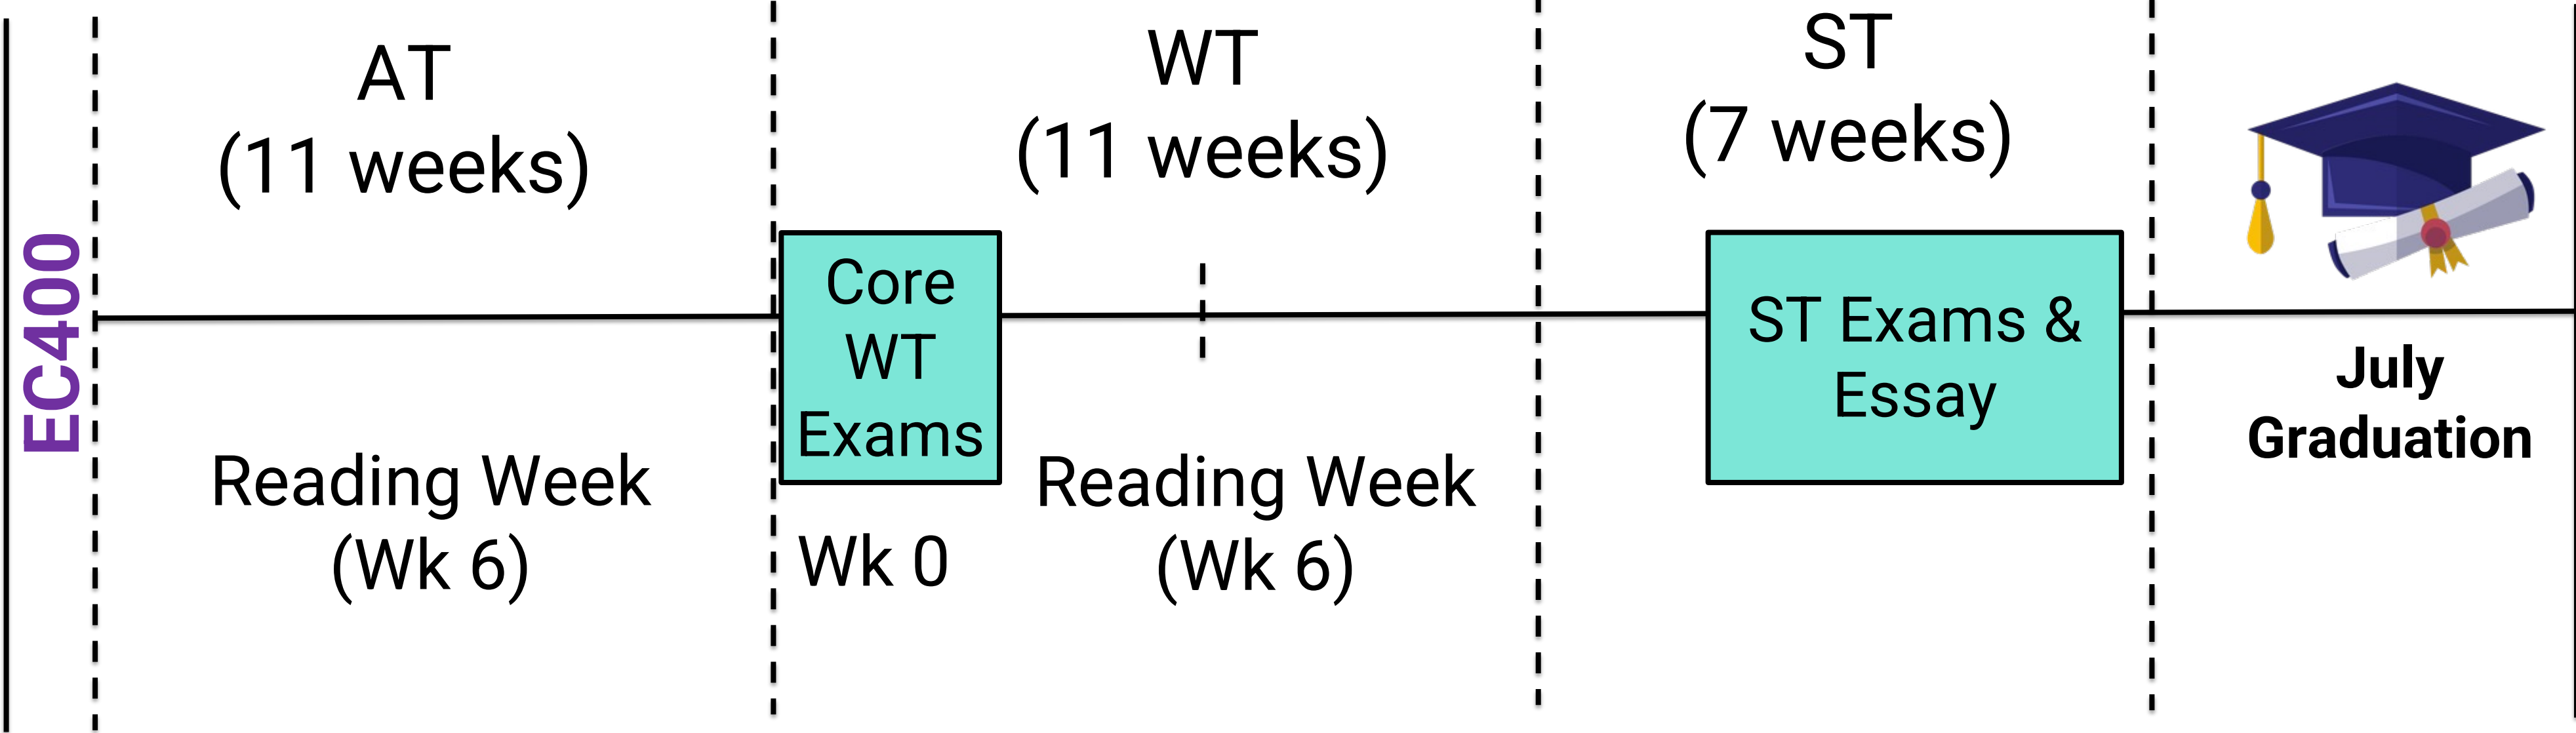

- FM429: Asset Markets A
- FM4U1: Fixed Income Markets - Dissertation

Asset Markets and Portfolio Management:

- FM429: Asset Markets A
- FM4T5: Portfolio Management - Dissertation

MSc Economics timeline

EC400

AT (11 weeks)

WT
(11 weeks)

ST
(7 weeks)

Core
WT
Exams

ST Exams &
Essay

July
Graduation

Reading Week
(Wk 6)

Wk 0

Reading Week
(Wk 6)

September

Winter break

Spring break

Summer

MSc Tutor & Deputy Programme Director

Dr Mohan Bijapur

- Course choice/academic progress
- Pastoral care
- Advice on PhD applications/career directions (multiple PhD advice talks in Autumn Term)
- Chair of SSLC
- Organiser of:
 - MSc Economics seminar series
 - Stata/R programming courses

Student Support: MSc Tutor

Dr Junius Olivier

- General academic advice
- Course choice/academic progress
- Pastoral care
- Advice on PhD applications/career directions

Careers support

Amy Fox – dedicated Economics department careers consultant

- Regular events including alumni
- 1:1 meetings
- 24 July 12:00 London time - online session on Banking and Finance application cycle – more details to follow

A close-up photograph of a silver and black microphone, positioned diagonally from the bottom left towards the center. The microphone's mesh grille is highly detailed. The background is a blurred, vibrant red, suggesting a stage or a large audience. The overall lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the microphone.

Questions?

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Thank you for joining us!