IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR001	I go directly... on the web, there's written 'search on wikipedia or search on the web' and I always go on the web GM: Why, don't you trust Wikipedia? 4 No, Wikipedia is not like the web, which I am used to and I feel more comfortable with 5: Yes, Wikipedia can be difficult 1: No, I don't use Wikipedia so much because it doesn't tell all what I'd like to know. So I go on Google and see what websites I can find
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR002	These are social games, so if you manage to have some friends on Giochi.it, who play this game too... they could play at the same time, you can visit them, help them...
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR003	Exchanging messages with people you don't know [may be dangerous] because they may have bad intentions, they might bring you to a place and the... they deceive you and can steal you something, I think
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR004	it means that it pops up this... with two people kissing, I don't know how to say
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR005	And on Skype my mother told me "do not upload your picture because then they can see you are a child" and so I left it with no image
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR006	I think it's true. Once I saw on YouTube... well, I went on YouTube's homepage and saw how to find passwords of wifi networks. So perhaps he was one of them and he was able to hack their password with that trick ... so he used their credit card and made them spend more.
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR007	Or like this friend of mine who one day on Facebook posted a picture of the two of us together when we were skiing, but I was fie with it becuase he had also written "my best friend and I"
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR008	Me, instead, if a picture of mine is posted on Facebook, my parents get angry and I, it might be someone with bad intentions, he might found out where the picture is taken and he comes and, I could I say, ... he could steal VS: rob the house
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR009	I wouldn't be happy ... because a friend of mine, once he was about to share pictures, but he has some Romas among his friends and so I told him not to post them because then... one day we passed on the street and they were there, he told us "don't tell them anything" but we said hello, so they made us a rude gesture and threw cans t us.
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR010	I am not concerned, because also on tha gaming websites, Giochi.it, I gave personal information but my profile is private so only me can see it
IT-FG -9-10-	1: Always on that game, Galaxy Life, I know all the games on that platform that

boys-TR011	you can be invited to play, but there not many that I like. So I check which game I have been invited to play, and I refuse or i go online on the PC and see what he has done [not clear], or requests of friendship, through the games [they play] I see if I am interested GM: So if they invite you to play a game you like then you accept them as friends. Instead, if it is a game you are not interested in... 1: If I don't like it I say no
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR012	4: while I was playing on this gaming website, when dad tried to kick this guy off, then a threat appeared GM: so you were with your dad... 4: yes, he did it because I don't know how to kick people off our wifi network VS: and what was the threat? 4: [the threat] was something like 'If you ban me I'll kill your family'
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR013	I don't like that a friend of mine... I accidentally find naked women, but he looks for it on purpose
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR014	He doesn't have a tablet PC, so he asks me if he can borrow mine, so at the party for my First Communion he asked if I could lend him, and I said it was out of charge, because I knew he would have looked for such things
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR015	I lie to him first because I am disgusted, and I don't want him to watch these things. If he wants to watch it then use your own devices!
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR016	Because, then, if I lent it, all these things remain in the history, then your parents check it and see them. Because once I have lent it to him, and from that time I understood that... I let him use my computer and after my mum saw that on Safari there were written such things
IT-FG -9-10-boys-TR017	I told her I had lent it to Simone, but she didn't believe me so now I don't let him use it anymore
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR018	And then perhaps I play... to... I play, but I don't go on Facebook

IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR019	You told me you don't use Facebook No, because I don't have any contact... I mean, I cannot even do it, I am too young
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR020	No [I don't use my brother's PC]. Because he would find it out anyway, because he can see... that I turned it on, that I touched something
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR021	Sometimes when he receives a message, my dad tells me to go on Facebook to read it, but when he is not at home I don't visit Facebook.
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR022	My dad posted a picture of my dog on Facebook and everyone can see it and they say 'how cute he is
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR023	No, I don't chat, I don't contact anyone. Either I play, either I make some searches, but nothing more GM: I see 1: Because my friends, I mean, my best friend - I don't know how to... I mean, she is not online, or, she is online but she doesn't communicate, she doesn't write, so...
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR024	GM: So, what do you like most of the internet? 1: mmm... pla.. I don't know GM: Do you like the internet? 1: Yes, it is interesting, I like going online, because you can discover a lot of things GM: So tell me something you have discovered 1: mmm... How to do, I don't know, how to cook pasta, the receipt to make pasta, sometimes I go there and GM: And did you find it on the gaming website, 'cooking with Sara' or? 1 No, no, on this website to make cakes, pasta and the like
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR025	When I will be 11 I will enjoy going on the internet very much, communicating, for example, my brother communicates with - sometimes with a Spanish guy, they speak in English, so you improve your English and at the same time share their lives in France, Germany and so on GM: How did your brother meet this Spanish guy? 1: They met on, he went on a game which is social, it is very...
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR026	So you think you will have a profile on Facebook when you will be 11? 1: Yes I think so... I hope

	GM: And your mum and dad agree with that? have you already discussed it? 1: I think so, because they have already promised to give me a computer, a phone, and electronics for my Confirmation
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR027	Also when I am playing, I click on a game, and another window opens. And so I think it is the game, but it is not, it is something else, another game. and I don't like it GM: so what do you usually do? 1: I turn it off, I mean, I press X and close it. But then you close everything, the game too
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR028	What happend when you clicked on a pop-up by accident? 1: Then ... some games I am not able to close them anymore, so I am forced to play it. or, when I really don't like it, that I am tired of it, I turn the computer off and restart everything
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR029	GM: Wouldn't you be worried since you don't know her/him? 1: yes, probably yes... I don't know what he can tell me actually, probably I might not like what he says. or rather, if he tells me something that I don't like... I mean... I wouldn't know how to say bye, I'm leaving the conversation. I mean, I am not able to do it... GM: And how would you cope with this? 1: You must tell the truth... what you are doing and what you think of him. Then he might change
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR030	Did it happen to you to find something that scared you? 1: Oh yes, once I was looking for, for a search, I found... mmm... I don't remember what I was looking for, but something appeared, which made no sense, and GM: take it easy... 1: I don't know how to explain, it was a skeleton, and it was all dark around, a sort of half a mummy and half a vampire, but I didn't... well I found it funny GM: So it was a funny video but you were a little bit scared 1: Yes I was GM: Did you have other experiences that you didn't like? 1: No, that's it. because it happens often to me so I hope no, I will not [do other experiences I don't like] GM: So you often find things you don't want to see? 1: [nodding]
IT-INT -9-10-girl 1-TR031	GM: So to sum up, what is the best and the worst thing online? 1: The best thing, as I said before, is that you can talk to others, meet people, find out what they think, like a sort of a journal, but you write it on the internet. the worse thing is that when you are searching for something ... you don't find it or it

	is something that has no reference with what you were looking
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR032	I don't go online that much and when I go I am not alone because... I'm always afraid I could make a mess so I go online just to make some searches or for schoolwork
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR033	Once I went online with my mother, because she enjoys horror games, such as for Halloween,, she enjoys it very much, so I found this website and we watched the games together, my brothers came downstairs too, and we played all together.
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR034	5: My mother always clicks on Wikipedia 3: My mum too 5: She says it is appropriate for both older people and younger children
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR035	5: No, I don't want to trust Facebook because I don't like it very much 1: Neither do I 5: My sister, no my brother has it, but my mum always tells him not to use his own picture because you can never know who it may reach and... so I don't want it because... it is better to talk... face to face, not wiritng on the PC
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR036	2: In my opinion if you post personal things on Facebook they can go everywhere and ... my mother says that when you upload your picture they can come and look for you, and do something to you, so it is dangerous. instead on skype you can, you can indeed upload you picture but it is more reliable than Facebook 5: I don't know if you can hide personal information on Facebook, but at least on Skype when someone sends me a request of friendship, he cannot see all my details. then, if I accept him, he can see some data, I don't know if you can do it on Facebook and then I don't trust 3: all your data are visible, all the friends you have are visible
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR037	5: I've heard of an unpleasant experience on Facebook so I don't, don't trust it anymore GM: Tell us 5: There was a child, a young girl, 13-14 years old, and there was a man who pretended to be her friend. so one day he invited her to a bar and... he killed her

	GM: have you met this girl before... 5: No no no, I didn't know her, I've heard it on TV or somewhere else
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR038	What is the appropriate age? 4: I think 18-19 years old 5: Yes, so do I, because then you are independent, you can make decisions
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR039	3: ... When they show you scary videos, as ghosts for example GM: where did you see them? 3: I am looking for nice videos, but I finds horrible videos instead GM: I see, on Youtube you mean? BS: and what were you looking for? 3: when I look for gym videos I always find scary videos
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR040	2: I dont' like that every time I look for "pencil" let, say, then some pink boxes appears, which is advertising, and sometimes I scroll the page, in order to avoid clicking on it, but they move and I click on it. I mean, they move as if there were someone moving them and ... I don't like it, it's bad
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR041	4: so then you, don't know, there was something you liked and so you [accidentally] click on that stuff, which is not very reliable
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR042	1: It happens to me too, they have an X so I click the X and they disappear, but after five minutes they come back 3: It happens to me as well 5: I don't get any X unfortunately
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR043	2: something pop ups, for example if it is a game advertisement, or a video... then this pop up shows up and aks "do you want to install this game?", "do you want to download this video?". And it bothers me a lot, because you are doing an online search and you are diverted to smething you are not interested in
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR044	2: ... I am bothered by gmails, because when I go there, to check if... don't know, my grandparents or aunt and uncle have sent me letters, I find - don't know, I deleted them before - I had deleted all the advertising I received, and then I

	receive 50 more of these emails, like amazon or stuff like that, it's bad, I am bothered by this, I can't really stand it 3: You delete them but others come 2: I can't stand that all the little home that you get ... via wireless ... the things, I can't stand they know my gmail, I don't like it, and wo they send me advertising. It's bad
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR045	4: yes, it happened to my neighbour, that has Skype too, she was sent a video from her friend who was on holiday and so you can also see places, if you like them or not, so it is funnier than Facebook
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR046	3: she is probably afraid that, don't know, someone might send me something, someone I don't know and I reply to him
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR047	5: something you don't understand and... perhaps mothers are bothered because, I mean, you have to know things when you are grown up enough, or... when your parents explain them to you, not when you are sent emails that...
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR048	GM: Did you happen to receive an email or a message by someone you don't know? 4: Yes, many times 2: No it didn't happen to me, apart from advertising 4: But I immediately delete the message, because they may... 2: may not be safe
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR049	4: Usually on Skype, when I use it, and someone wants to add me, usually if they don't have a picture, I wait the next day. for example, if Gaia, one of my friends, sent the request, I as her 'is it you who sent the request?'. If she says no then I don't accept the request. if she says yes than I do. When there's the picture I generally accept it though... he might have taken my friend's picture and...
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR050	5: It happened to me... but... not problematic as, I am not sure it is very serious, serious as videos with vulgar language, but I see things... something which is not appropriate for me or for... I don't know how to explain. Indeed my mother always tells me to click this and that in order to avoid to see something I am not allowed to
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR051	3: It is videos on ... on the reproductive system. I mean, there's an image at the beginning and then it starts, so I delete it immediately

IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR052	BS: Do you happen to tell your parents what you have seen? 2: I prefer not to talk about it GM: Why, Sara? 2: I don't like talking about these issues, it's bad. I mean... also because it is normal to find this kinds of things nowadays, I think
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR053	5: It happend sometimes that I look for a music video and I find that video with something below... I mean a list of videos, and those videos are other things ... They shouldn't be there I think, because there websites dedicated to this and so.. it is also rude, because there may be younger users, and the want to watch a video but find a different one. It is not good.
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR054	GM: Is it people who should do something to prevent it or can YouTube do something too in your opinion 5: In my opinion... even if you warn them and ask them to stop, they are rude people anyway so they continue, because if you are rude you are rude 2: it is responsability of those who upload these videos 3: yes, indeed 2: It is stupid people who upload videos which we children are not allowed to see at our age
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR055	3: One thing that scares me is that ... if they find me, I am afraid they may hurt me or kidnap me, so I wouldn't like to do it
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR056	5: I am afraid my personal information goes 4: in someone's hands 5: someone you have never met before and you don't know if you can trust 4: he could even kill you, if he comes for you, tell you bad things and kill you
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR057	3: At times my mother tells me not to go on a certain website because I might experience something scary, or not pleasant.
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR058	GM: What bothers you most? 2: strangers 3: My personal data, because they are personal

	5: From my point of view, it is inappropriate content and advertisement. No, not advertisement, because advertisement is everywhere ... so bad things that come out, images, videos of negative things GM: Valentina? 4: I don't like when you give your data to someone, your personal data and then a stranger comes up for you GM: Ok, so... 3: Perhaps, strangers don't bot... I would place it after inappropriate content because I've never experienced it, so I don't know what would happen 2: You are right, when one thinks of strangers, one thinks of negative experiences but it may turn out a friendship. As, in my class I didn't know everyone, they were strangers to me and then I met them so... I wouldn't say strangers, I would say bad, mean strangers 3: you mean adults that hurt you? 2: yes indeed 5: well, children too can be dangerous BS: what do you mean? 2: they might be accomplices of adults
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR059	2: They might access personal things that strangers, 'mafiosi' don't have access to and one doesn't want other people might access this information so they might blackmail someone 3: in my view children are accomplices of those who pretend to be your friends in order to get access to your personal data, and then share it
IT-FG -9-10-girls-TR060	2: It is a software that prevents me from going on bad websites, though some websites are stronger than...
IT-FG -14-16-girls-TR061	4: I'm Alice, I'm 15, and I'm on Facebook, I like discovering new music and every time I have a curiosity I'd like to satisfy the first thing I turn to is the internet, it's my first means of finding answers to the questions I have and... that's it. Facebook
IT-FG -14-16-girls-TR062	5: Facebook more than all the others, then sometimes I open new profiles out of curiosity but I am loyal to Facebook GM: So what profile did you open out of curiosity recently? 5: Twitter, but I didn't like it, then another one called Deviantart, something like that... then... oh no, but that was nice because it was about images, it was all pictures
IT-FG -14-16-girls-TR063	1: No, I didn't activate the internet on my phone on purpose, because otherwise it becomes too much and so, I like the computer anyway, but as long as it is helpful. I am a bit anomalous, I mean, Facebook I use it but, because I don't have any web package on my mobile on purpose, otherwise I would always be there writing, and so I use it at nights, to talk with my boyfriend, when I come back from sport training. But I don't spend much time on it, just enough to check my class' group, to see if there's anything new or what others posted, but usually

	no more than 20 minutes, and then yes I use the internet mainly for school activities, I think it is very helpful
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR064	5: When I am bored, when I am bored I take my phone and check it, on my home, if I find nice pictures than I keep on looking, I mean, Facebook pages where they post pictures, then I stay there, I don't realise it, but I carry on watching all the pictures, for a long time GM: for how long? 5: up to half an hour GM: what kind of pages... 5: It is nice pictures, I mean, puppies or, stupid things, but I stay there and watch them
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR065	3: At times I am not even aware, I am not doing anything but I keep on , I am not doing anything in particular but I keep on reading and...
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR066	3: On Facebook there are people that I have never met 4: That you probably have seen 3: seen around 4: around, you've seen them around, and talked to them once in a blue moon 2: Yes, definitely, on Facebook it is people that I met a couple of times, I mean, you don't have such deep conversations
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR067	5: yes you have an account and people can ask questions both anonymously or not. such as, "is it true that Marco was your boyfriend?", questions like that, you know. Don't you feel like giving an answer? then you delete the question and that's it. if you decide to answer then on your profile it will appear "is it true that Marco was your boyfriend?" "yes"
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR068	1: it may be the case that someone from the school who knows something about me, then could ask me, I don't know, I am always afraid that, I don't have such secrets, but indeed I think the computer is one thing and real life another. It may happen that one from my class gets cross me for some reason, she knows something about me, and so asks me a question anonymously and everybody gets to know it
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR069	5: for example last year I have been stolen the password of my email account, they managed, they hacked my account and so they continuously changed my Facebook password, and I changed it almost every day, indeed after I while I did not even remember it because everyday, at least twice or three times a day they changed, I had to changed the password on facebook GM: so through your email they managed to... 5: Yes they didn't post anything, but they accessed my account anyway. I mean, I think [they did access my profile]. Anyway the password 4: A friend of mine, they accessed her profile severl times. she has been stolen the password, they published content on her behalf, they created arguments in the chat. so I think she [girl 5] was lucky GM: and what did she do? 4: mmm, I mean, probably more than uploading content they created arguments,

	the wrote to a friend of her on the chat, offended him, said "I don't want to have anything to deal with you anymore', mmm, they were denigrating and offensive, it is such a mean thing GM: and is it a common experience as far as you know? 5: It is a bad experience, because one feels ... violated I would say. I mean, I did not know what to do at the end, I know someone is there, and is nosing around 4: someone you don't know who he is 5: I don't know whom, dont' know why. Then, if he hasn't done anything, is less important, anyway he did access your profile, pretending to be yourself, so it's not nice
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR070	5: If someone doesn't know you, goes there and reads "you are a... [slut], all these things, then he might jump to the wrong conclusion about me, I mean, it's not nice
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR071	2: It is not that I bother for what this guy who wrote it anonymously thinks of me, it is really... I am bothered by the fact that someone who has never met me before, and who doesn't even dare to say it to my face, writes it on Ask, which is really mean
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR072	4: At lower secondary school I was not in a very favourable environment, to speak frankly, I have been victim of bullying and cyberbullying. And ... on Facebook, being mocked in front of everybody, be subjected to continuous comments to candid photos - I mean, not candid, but not inappropriate - or to status updates, it is not nice, so I preferred, or being continuously harassed via chat, I didn't like it at all, so I ended up blocking two or three people
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR073	GM: and what did your other class mates do? the ones you were more intimate with 4: They were scared too. They supported me when we were not at school, when we were at my place or out, but at school they were afraid of being mocked too
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR074	4: They created a Facebook page that was against me GM: I see, so you could see it 4: They took photos where I was joking with my friends, with weird faces, and this was the image of the profile, of the page, and then it was full of offensive messages. the teachers forced them to delete the page, but it took them some time
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR075	4: It was my family more than anything. I did not know how to behave and they supported me. They helped me, suggesting how to behave, and on my part I was clever enough to listen to them, because there are people who don't
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR076	4: No, I have always used Facebook. But now I use it in a completely different way: I pay attention to the comments I post, to what I share, the way I speak, I

	mean, the way I write
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR077	4: I created my Facebook profile in the third grade [of lower secondary school]. I created my account after they opened the page [against me]
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR078	4. There were no pictures on the page, when I created a facebook account they stole my picture GM: I see. So some of your class mates told you a page against you had been created 4: Yes, my best friend informed me "look, they have created a Facebook page against you". This made me suffer terribly
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR079	GM: What does bother you most? 1: Pathetic status updates GM: Pathetic status updates..... 1: I really cannot stand the
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR080	2: yes that thing and privacy. this privacy issue really scares me
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR081	2. There's a page on Facebook called "you bastard sex maniacs", not it's "I hate those bastard sex maniacs", where people who receive messages from individuals with a by-end, and with a mental disorder in my opinion, so they take a screenshot of the conversation and post it on this page, and soemtimes you really see scary conversations, they make me feel anxious, it is really sex maniacs that harass young girls. these are the things that scary me. I mean, if it happened to me... GM: What would you do? 2: I have no idea, I think I would block the guy, but I would feel anxious 5: The fact is that they know who you are
IT-FG -14-16 girls-TR082	5: then you see young girls who go out with ... and also adults who write "Hi sweetie, let's meet offline", and so. And then these girls accept to meet them and are raped - I mean sexual abuse is never right, but I claim: what are you doing yourself? Why did you accept to meet a stranger who contacted you on Facebook?
IT-INT - 9-10 - boy 1-TR083	I usually go on Google, but Google Images, because I look at the image first, and then, then I go to the web and have everything done GM: and look for websites? 1: Because on the web there are no ... how do you say GM: the pictures? 1: Yes the pictures, and so you need to read the whole thing and at the end of it there's the name. but you don't know where the name is, so you need to read the whole text and see if it is the right animal, and if you mistake animals several

	times it wears you out
IT-INT - 9-10 - boy 1-TR084	because sometimes, when I am not sure, I am not sure about what the internet says, because I expected something else, so I turn to books and check if what the internet reports is true
IT-INT - 9-10 - boy 1-TR085	I have my email on the internet, not as with the new mobile phones that you get your email on the box "email" GM: I see 1: I always look for my email on the internet
IT-INT - 9-10 - boy 1-TR086	Libero, because my father said "I feel safer with Libero, because I work there, and mum does, and so it is safer than google, where everybody goes and can access your mailbox, write something" and this is not good. And moreover on Libero they provide you with a free protection
IT-INT - 9-10 - boy 1-TR087	Facebook, it happened that I entered it, but then I deleted the page because I didn't know what it is and I thought it is something you have to regis... it is illegal, as ... do you know these sites where you can watch a movie without paying the copyrights to the director?
IT-INT - 9-10 - boy 1-TR088	Because Google lets me go where I want and do all what I want, instead on YouTube I can watch all movies, on Google I can also go and play, on YouTube I have access to videos, I can see the images I want, download pictures for school work....
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR089	Because dad doesn't like it very much that I go online and he prefers me to do homework offline and all my family is a bit... on that side but at the beginning I asked to my mum some musicians and then I went online to look for the rest
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR090	because on the internet beyond... usually I search for schoolwork, but when I finish, if I don't know what to do, and I am already online, then I feel like staying there more
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR091	If my mobile phone could go online, then I would use it also to talk with my friends.
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR092	because with certain games, she ends with one and there are many, some ask you to make a registration, or 'print this image' and I tell my sister 'Silvia, we must avoid that... because it has happened already once, that we printed..., I did something, when I was 6, I had installed a game on my mother's [telephone]... but I didn't know I had to pay for it, and so it was consuming money. that's why she pays attention on the internet
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR093	No, I choose it [the games] by myself, because my mother and father come and check me when, don't know, the music is too loud, so they shout at me to turn

	down the volume... otherwise they don't care much when I am online, they know I can do it on my own
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR094	On Skype, the few times I use it, I don't find any of my contacts
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR095	Both of them, Viber and Whatsapp are meant for mobile phones, and for talking when one is out nad doesn't have his own computer
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR096	I mean, I don't, to access YouTube and like videos, or post comments you need to have an account. I don't have it so I just watch, I look for videos related but as I scroll the page then I am also curious about the comments people post. So when I read these offensive messages or "you don't understand anything", I feel a bit angry. Or when you search for a song and you find all but the song you were looking for
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR097	Yes sometimes, once I wasn't doing anything but this video started, so I went back and it started again... so, it seems... It really bothered me, why do I have to watch it if I was not looking for it? BS: But was it ... bad things? 1: No, it was a song I hadn't been looking for BS: Ok, I see 1: But this makes me flip out anyway
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR098	For example, there's a song, beautiful monster, that beyond watching the video, the song, when you search for it you find all these videos, of... thrown.... one time BS: Videos of? 1: Of... I mean, once it happend thta I was watching his video and I saw a man who threw a dog. What does it have to do with Beautiful Monster? and so, it makes me angry. other time there are violent images
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR099	well, no, it was a bit funny after all because you don't usually happen to find people who thrown dogs
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR100	BS: Have you ever sent a request of friendship to someone you have never met before? Not to complete strangers. I might have done it with friends of friends , otherwise not BS: Did you ever receive a request from a stranger? 1: Yes, it happend once, and I was a bit confused, I didn't know if I had to accept him since I have never met him before, so I went looking for, I have asked my friends, and my friend Filippo replied he didn't know him neither but he was among his contacts BS: Ok 1: this is an inappropriate use of Skype in my view, to have more contacts with whom to interact. But then I found out she was... it's hard to explain, the friend of the cousin of a friend of mine

IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR101	it depends, I'd first look at the profile, the age, and then if, if my parents knew they would shoot me, but ... It depends, either I'd accept him/her, I'll see. If any of my friends has this person among their contacts than I'd rather decline than looking for things that may turn out to be....
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR102	There was a message on Skype to be careful because the police sent this contact, that it was a virus BS: the police to send this contact.. 1: To control Skype. and people using it, the sent a contact that if you accepted it turned out to be virus BS: I see. so it was not the police, because it is unlikely that the police spreads viruses 1: Not a virus on the PC, it was more to see the data, to see what kind of people, if it was a person, I don't know how it happened, there was this message on skype BS:that you received on Skype? 1: Yes, and a lot of my friends received it too
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR103	Yes it was anonymous, because even if you don't know someone you see their name and surname on a message, this time there was no name
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR104	Yes it was anonymous, because even if you don't know someone you see their name and surname on a message, this time there was no name BS: what was written on it? 1: The message said "in order to monitor Skype users, the police is sending requests of contact with the user Francesca Capone" a name like that and "don't accept among your contacts because it could ... change your profile and your contacts as well"
IT-INT - 11-13 - boy 1-TR105	The message was reliable, it is impossible it has not been sent by a real person, because a lot of my friends received it too BS: I see 1: So I believe Skype sent to all his users, because there was no sender
IT-INT - 11-13 - girl 1-TR106	My friends and I enjoy taking pictures of us, we like it. And a friend of mine is very good at it, she'd like to become a photographer – so we enjoy posting pictures and see how many likes we get and then we say 'ah this picture got a lot of likes'
IT-INT - 11-13 - girl 1-TR107	Yes [I have 800 friends] because some are really friends of mine, others are friends of my friends, or acquaintances, people who attend this school, that I've seen around but I've never talked to. And so I use it as a way... it's a way to make more friends. For example, thanks to Facebook I became friend of people who come to this school but I haven't talked to before. Then I started chatting on Facebook and so now when we meet at the entrance we talk...
IT-INT - 11-13 - girl 1-TR108	This friend of mine, we practice dance together, and we were in the same class in primary school, she accepted this guy called Marcello, she asked him 'who are

	you?’ and he referred to a friend of us. So she accepted him, they started chatting, and he asked her for pictures in swimming suit, he turned out to be a bit... So she told her mother who at first chided her, and said ‘ you could have told me earlier’. So they blocked, they blocked him, and she changed her Facebook name, she used a nickname but he found out her new email, her new profile, so he sent her another friendship request, but she managed to block it, and then he stopped bothering her.
IT-INT - 11-13 - girl 1-TR109	It’s a website where you are anonymous and you can ask questions to everyone else. You don’t have to write your name, you use numbers or, I mean, they don’t find out it is you. And you pass the time talking to people. It is all covered, you don’t risk and pass the time. It is called Ask, because ‘ask’ means question, doesn’t it? And so one is asked these kind of question, not ‘what’s your name?’ or ‘how old are you?’ because it’s private things, but things like .do you like One Direction?’so go and see this website’.so it is basically people who don’t know each other asking questions one another
IT-INT - 11-13 - girl 1-TR110	1: Yes it really is anonymous. Unless people know each other and say “look, I am c.022”, then you know who he is. Otherwise it is all anonymous and you ask this kind of questions that... indeed, asking questions to someone you cannot identify, talking with people you don’t know it is not so much fun. But now it is very fashionable, everyone asking questions on Ask. And on Facebook as well, there used be a lot of pictures in the news, photos or people sharing things on Facebook. Instead, now you get messages from people ‘please ask me questions on Ask” and there’s a link to the website, so you just need to click it and you can start ask questions to this guy. So now instead of status updates and pictures it is all this Ask, Ask, Ask, ask me questions. I don’t find it very funny, but there’s people who enjoys it a lot, they spend hours on Ask to ask questions to people they don’t even know, cannot find out how old they are, who they are, where they live, nothing. GM: So do you think it is risky? 1: It is a bit risky indeed, because you don’t have any idea of whom you are talking to. I mean, you are giving them a lot of personal information, which may not be your name and your address but you are giving a lot of information about yourself to people you don’t know. It is I like if I started talking and I gave a lot of info on what I like, what I dislike, the clothes I wear, the shoes I like, how many earrings I use, all this kind of things, to people I have never met before. It is risky, and it is not even funny. What’s the purpose in asking questions?
IT-INT - 11-13 - girl 1-TR111	Moreover, it has to be difficult to delete the profile, because even if you delete your profile all the things you disclosed about yourself stay on Ask, even if you delete your profile
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR112	1: I have just reached 900 friends GM: And is it all people that... 1: No, not all of them. Not all, the majority, perhaps someone, I’ve met them face to face. But not all 900, of course GM: I see. And how ... 1: I don’t know, I mean, I do not usually add people I’ve never met before... It may happen that a friend has friends in common with me, and so, since I see we have friends in common, I add them,, just to be nice, or that they add me

	GM: so, indeed it is people you share some contact with 1: yes, I would say so GM: But who are the people you interact with more often on Facebook? 1: My best friends, my friends in general, people I've met before, my girlfriend, and... my class mates
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR113	I am really bothered by this, very much. I mean, you are not able to surf freely that many windows open promoting "earn money here" or "come and gamble here", or videochats such as "come and meet our new girls", this kind of things...
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR114	1: For fun, yes, to see what others say, how they react. Girls, for example, sometimes they create fake accounts in order to tell, to write boys dirty things, and see if they fall in the trap, I mean, if they are available. Yes, yes, they do it on purpose GM: And have any of your friends fallen in the trap? 1: No, we usually recognise them quite soon, because, I mean, you need only a glance to and... GM: And do you talk about these things among friends? 1: Yes, yes... I mean, sometimes we even understand who they are, those behind these things
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR115	To be honest, I've seen a lot of fake profiles of girls, but I haven't met any fake boy yet. It is girls who are ... crazier here, who try to elicitate boys
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR116	1: don't know, if the boy or girl in questions inspires me sympathy, from her face and so, then I accept them. I mean, also if probably, especially if I see we have friends in common. If it is one or two friends in common, then I don't accept him/her as friends, it has to be over 30 GM: I see 1: out of 905 friends, 30 friends in common is the minimum. So if she has over 30 or if she inspires me, then, yes, I accept it, why not?
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR117	So they write him and ask "publish this message" and he publishes it on behalf of that person, but without saying his name. It is anonymous, that's why it is so popular, because obviously this means one can writes whatever he wants, and you don't know, you don't know the sender
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR118	In my school this turned into a mess, because basically, I don't know, this school ; and indeed I fell ashamed for this – it happend that this Spotted from funny and playful as it should be turned into a truly offensive offense against teachers and

	students
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR119	It is so easy, it is a matter of an instant, that...I mean, I understand making jokes on some classmates, but making fun of them in that way... it is unfair, poor them. I can understand that sometimes the teacher, one gets a bad mark and so says the teacher is a piece of shit, but, I mean, it is acceptable within a certain limit, but one cannot go against the teacher in that way, insult him, especially on Facebook, a social network site where every one can read it
IT-INT - 14-16 - boy 1-TR120	Well, yes, I think it is a way to let people know you better, because a private profile means, I think, that it is only you who look for other people, while others may not find you on Facebook. So I think Facebook is a social network site that has to be used to meet new people, to expand our networks. This is what I think, at least. And I think that all of us now have a public profile, that everybody can see. It doesn't make sense to keep it private in that, I think... it is older people who want to keep it private, they are not interested in making new friends. For example, my mum uses it, and she has a private profile, and she uses it to meet her old friends rather than meeting new people, as we teenagers do. She is not interested in that, she has been having her profile for a while now, but she has just 120 friends so not so many friends...
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR121	1: Yes, I receive requests of friendship then I check, if I see someone, or if I see we have many many friends in common then I add them. Or when I meet someone, such as, for example, the other day here at school I met one girl, so perhaps I look for her and I add her GM: What do you mean when you say 'many many friends in common'? 1: around 150-200
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR122	1: I don't know, because there are people who write things I don't agree with, vulgar, so I avoid adding friends of those people GM: But you keep having them [vulgar people] as friends? 1: Yes, yes. It happened juts few times that I deleted someone, but because he wrote something that was really... I mean ... one may be bothered by a wall full of offensive posts and swears
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR123	GM: But in your experience, you said you deleted some people from the list of friends, what happened? 1: Yes, one girl started to offend a girl GM: I see 1: I don't know why, but in a very offensive manner GM: and you were friend of both on Facebook? 1: But she [the offended girl] was right, I mean, so the other started insulting her, with no apparent reason, and so I said "I'll delete her" GM: And how did she react when she found out? 1: No, other people don't... they don't realise it GM: don't they realise it?

	1: when one is deleted, no [one doesn't realise it]. then, if one visits your profile sees "add to friends", and "wasn't she among my friends already?". But then she can send a further request of friendship GM: and did you happen to delete someone but then receive a request ? 1: yes, then eventually ... after a while I added her again
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR124	1: don't know as... or when, let's say, when there's a quarrel, don't know, in class, one may apologise on the group's page, then in class they talk again so everything finds a solution GM: so, it's a way to deal with... 1: Yes, at least starting [to find a solution], because one might not be able to talk immediately, face to face, so one might prefer to write on the page and then the next day at school talk and solve it
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR125	when I really know what to do I play games
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR126	So if you were to say the thing you like the most on the internet what would you say? 1: Music. Listening and sharing music GM: yes 1: Then Facebook, yes, but music comes first
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR127	1: don't know, sometimes one posts indecent pictures or write things... that are vulgar. and then, I mean, they start quarrelling, people who have never met before. And I am notified of all of this, because I belong to the group, and seeing all this going on sometimes bother me a bit GM: and how did you decide to join this group? 1: I didn't, I have been added by someone
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR128	1: Sometimes I delete the post, or hide it, but I have never reported anything GM: why? 1: because I don't know how it works... I report and then what happens, you can also block someone GM: yes 1: But then I guess he doesn't receive any notifications anymore so I said it doesn't matter
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR129	1: Public. So if one comes and clicks on my name then he sees my info and posts... GM: I see... so all the information is visible? 1: yes, unless it is private information, which is protected for privacy issues so... [they can see] my name and surname, date of birth, so you are notified when it's your birthday GM: I see.. 1: Pictures, mentions and so on

IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR130	GM: So did you select the option that your picture were accessible only to your friends? 1: No, I guess it is by default
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR131	1: I am not the kind of person thta goes there and starts a quarrel, I mean, when something happens the first time I don't care, the second and... But I prefer to discuss it face to face, "that's enough". But taking part into discussions of this kind happened last year, two class mates carried on insulting at one another's so GM: on Facebook 1: yes ... I mean, one girl kept on insulting the other one on Facebook, but then at school didn't say a single word so in this case... but I did it face to face, on Facebook I read it but... GM: and what did you tell her? 1: No, I ended up saying her "why don't you talk to each other? cause that you insult her on Facebook and then in class you do as if she weren't here is not fair. So talk to each other and end it". Even because the atmosphere in class was so... GM: so what happen? 1: They ended up resolve it ... and now everything is at has been before more or less. yes, you make fun, you laugh, it is stupid things that at first might seem, i mean, big things, but at the end... it's just nothing
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR132	1: and then he [the administrator] published the posts, but those who offended teachers, then those who "liked" the post they were not anonymous, when one likes something you see his name GM: yes.. 1: So they now took not of everyone taking part in it, and I don't know whether they took any measure, or something GM: I see 1: Some teachers were seriously offended... other were something linke "Prof. X is the school's idol"
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR133	1: It was a nice idea if it wouldn't for this thing of offensive messages, and cheating. indeed, it has been closed and ... our school principal was on the newspaper's homepage GM: I didn't know 1: Yes, the principal spoke about cyberbullying, you know, those things. And then they closed the page
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR134	GM: So do you discuss these issues in school? 1: Yes, in that period especially, every teacher suggested us something, they also told us "do not like these messages otherwise you'll be involved too", then... it was eventually closed
IT-INT - 14-16 -	That anonymity is not a good thing, if you want to tell someone something, then

girl 1-TR135	you better tell him with your name, and that it is easy to cheat someone anonymously so... it doesn't make any sense. But it wasn't a bad idea this of having a 'spotted page' because most schools have it
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR136	yes, then, well, I don't click on them, so you just have to ignore them. but it bothers GM: yes 1: As when I am looking for a movie in streaming, there are advertising of meeting... the pictures, directly on the page so then it may be bothering
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR137	They could actually delete them from some websites, and those interested in that kind of content might go on dedicated websites, so other people are free to look, and find, what they are looking for without having these videos, or pictures or advertising always in front of them
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR138	Don't know, I would say that on Facebook you might accept people that you think are certain people, but then it turns out to be... different. my dad, for example, told me that the daughter of a colleague of his accepted a boy, they started talking to each other, and they decided to meet. Ehm... but her mother accompanied her, because she has never met this boy before, and when they were at the place and they could not see this guy, she called me and the mobile phone of an adult started ringing, he was on the other side of the road, he didn't reply then... GM: so actually he was older 1: yes, they hide behind boys' profiles so as to contact other young people, and this is a bit risky, yes.
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR139	GM: Is there a way to know that someone is pretending? 1: probably some info on his profile is not that clear or... don't know, a picture in which the face is not visible, I guess. Something like that. But I don't know because i have never experienced this
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR140	Sometimes there are older people that want to add you, but then you think "I don't know this guy, he is older, I better not to add him", so I avoid doing it
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR141	Don't Know, the internet is helpful but then you need to be careful about certain things, even those things that tell you "you have won a prize" and if you click on that you install a virus so then you need to reset the computer
IT-INT - 14-16 - girl 1-TR142	GM: So do you also share advice on how to behave with contacts or friendship requests on Facebook? 1: don't know, one might come at school and say "I've been added by this guy". and so the others may tell you " I know him" "and how is he?" "he's nice" "you can add him". but then if you never heard of him you suggest "don't add him"...
IT- FG - 11-13- boys -TR143	I had to assert myself. Because, I mean, they didn't agree because they said it was dangerous

	GM: yes 1: That it was not appropriate for children. But then I managed to persuade them GM: How did you persuade them? 1: By telling them that I would have been able to talk with my friends, and then they have gradually been able to, they accepted it 2: My mother agreed because she is always monitoring me GM: when you are online? or more generally? 2: No, No, online usually, she visits my profile to check whom I chat with
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR144	Or... it is risky. it can be risky because on Facebook, as we have seen the other time in the video, if you post a picture you are no longer allowed to... take it back, and Facebook owns it.
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR145	GM: So Tommaso said "if I don't know them, I don't accept them as friends" while Silvio you said that among your online contacts there are people you don't know very well 3: I've seen them around GM:so you know them? 3: yes GM: I see 3: Or other people have mentioned them, so... I kind of know they have not bad intentions GM: Do you look for them or is it them who want to add you... 3: No, no, when I receive requests. I look only for people I know, I really know.
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR146	1: one of my friends instead created a fake account, to make fun, and sent me a friendship request, then he came at my home and while I went to the toilet he added this guy as a friend, who was him instead, and so he started to chat, we chatted and so I asked him "who are you?" and he told me the name displayed on the profile, which was a fake name" so I replied that I would have deleted him from my contacts and so after a while he said "no, look, I am a friend, I am..." GM: So he was chatting from his mobile right beside you? 1: yes, and I asked him: "what are you doing"? "texting"
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR147	That if someone posts a personal photo on his profile, someone can copy it and everyone can see it
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR148	4: Or a video... and if the videos are violent then the Communication Police comes and...
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR149	2: Instead, our design teacher told us that if you post a photo with your friends they can report you 4: Yes, you need the permission from his parent
IT- FG - 11-13-	3: He can delete it, you can report it

boys -TR150	GM: yes, you were saying that pictures can be reported 3: In case you think it is offensive you can. you have to click on... a button and then fill in a questionnaire with "why are you reporting this picture?" and you have to choose among offensive or I am present but I don't want to be identified, that kind of things, then, once it has been sent, it is processed - so they look at the picture and evaluate it, in case they make you delete it
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR151	4: Yes because it is you who published it so the other guy is free to do what ... he wants GM: Do you all agree with what he said? 2: Yes because it was you who decided to upload it so... GM: What picture do you use on your profile? 4: the picture of a freak wave
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR152	I used to have a picture of my face, but then I changed it with the picture of a car, and in the background there's me swimming in Miami... but you can't see it's me, it's full of people swimming
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR153	4: I was on Skype... and I was adding my first contact, it was on my iPod, and suddenly this advertisement came, that moved the contact at the bottom of the scree and so i accidentally clicked on the pop up, the screen turned white as if something was being downloaded. And it happens quite often
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR154	3: I hate it when you're watching a video online, and another page pop ups "do you want to know how to earn money easily? And a voice starts talking
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR155	2: I am bothered by my friends when they start ... posting stupid things about other people, so I tell them "stop it, he is a person indeed"
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR156	GM: turning back to what Tommaso told us, the fact of fooling someone publicly, have you also seen these things? 3: No 5: No 2: It happened to me just once 4: yes, but it was a joke, a friend wrote to another class mate "you're dumb", but this was not ... this insult 2: yes, but these are friendly insults, those you say when... 4: such as... 2: yes, right. And it depends from how you say it, if you send a smiley too then he knows you're just joking
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR157	GM: Instead, what happened in the case you were referring to? 2: I don't remember it very well because the offense was anonymous GM: on Facebook? And how can one post an nonymous message on Facebook? 2: You can, I don't know how to do it but you can. It was anonymous. But then I found out that it was a friend of mine who was fooling this other friend

IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR158	2: Yes, he was misbehaving towards another, someone I know, so I told him "whoever you are stop it, he is a person" 4: treat him 2: Treat him, yes, Treat him kindly GM: So did he stop? 2: I don't know GM: You don't know. And What happened to the boy offended? 2: He is not on Facebook. This friend is not on Facebook GM: So he was speaking ill of him 2: behind his back GM: behind his back, and did you tell him? 2: No, I didn't tell him
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR159	GM: And what do you think about it [the case of the young girl who committed suicide after being bullied on Facebook] 2: e Me, if they offend me, I offend them 5: No. These are exaggerations, I mean, I think they just wanted to get on her nerves, but the result was different 2: Stupid jokes 1: you're right 2: I don't understand... why not tell her face to face! 4: There's no need to commit suicide
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR160	4: yes, that they were cheating her, and even if she changed city, there it was, and it expanded
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR161	4: I dont' think bad people go on Ruzzle to look for you 2: Boh 4: They go more on social network sites such as Facebook and Twitter GM: Instead Tommaso, do you think there's no difference between Ruzzle and 2: Yes, it might be, because it is a game, it is entertainment so more young people than adults use it
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR162	2: I had... well some friends of mine [girls], from my class, used to receive every night a phone call by someone that they didn't know and they told me this person pretended to be myself. So they asked him questions about myself and he knew what I was doing, and my name and surname. Then, I don't know...
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR163	1: well, it might be a friend of mine who wants to make a joke since he knows me so well
IT- FG - 11-13-boys -TR164	GM: What should Filippo and his friends do? 2: Tell his parents, anyway 4: Yes, in my view Filippo should tell his parents, because it is not a normal thing GM: Niccolò, what would you do if you were Filippo? 5: Yes, I'd rather talk with my parents. It might be a friend after all but it is better... 4: avoid risks 5: yes, better not risk

Why don't you call each other or why don't you meet to keep on quarrelling?"
IT- INT – 14-16 girl 2 – TR229	BS: Why do they do it, in your opinion? I: well, if I openly insult a person I do it to humiliate him even more, but it doesn't seem right to me
IT- INT – 14-16 girl 2 – TR230	maybe sometimes you could meet unpleasant things without having looked for them, but usually, if you find something ugly it is because you have in some way looked for it, so... don't know, even images relating to sex or something of the kind, if you don't go looking for them, they seldom appear of their own

IT- FG – 14-16 boys – TR235	5: Yes I met new friends, whom later i met face to face. then... well, yes, on the chat sometimes it pops up a message "people you might know" and there I see if I am interested in someone and I add this person BS: But how did you get in touch with these people you had never met before? have they sent you a request of friendship? 5: Yes, sometimes it works like that, they add me, then it depends. If we have too many friends in common then I accept BS: so this is the criterion, if you share many friends with them? 5: well, yes then it depends from personal taste, if someone... if you know someone is too old for you, if someone older, with a few contacts in common adds you, I don't think you should accept 3: For example yesterday I have been sent a request from someone whose name was The Stupid and we shared 9 friends. It could have been someone I met before, but for safety reasons I didn't add him. and then on Facebook, as I said, if people with whom I share 100 contacts send me a request of freindship I add them, but then I have also friends I've never been talking to. For example with... I used to compete for the number of friends, now I am reducing it, since I don't even talk to the majority of them
IT- FG – 14-16 boys – TR236	BS: So how many friends do you have? 3: The people I talk to around 300 hundred, more or less BS: by talking to do you mean chatting with?

	3: Yes, but I kind of know them. Then the people I have seen around will be more 300/400 contacts BS: So overall you have.. 3: 800 friends more or less
IT- FG – 14-16 boys – TR237	3: I used to enjoy clicking on "add a new friend", but then it seemed a silly thing to do. It was in first and second grade of lower secondary school. So in the last couple of years I have been deleting those I realise I haven't met for long or I have never talked to, because I don't feel the need to have them among my friends BS: Could you explain this idea of a competition? 3: It was fun. I had a friend for example who enjoyed having 999 friends and didn't want to reach 1000. If he added someone, he would have deleted another one.
IT- FG – 14-16 boys – TR238	1: I have a smaller number of friends, but anyway the criteria is "do I know this guy?" "where is he from?". It might be that someone I have never met face to face comes from my town, and so I add him, he belongs to my own community 3: I mean, when you meet someone in a disco, you accept their request of friendship, but then you don't talk to them anymore 1: yes, that's right 3: I remember 2 years ago in a summer school in England I met some Italian people living in Rome, I might have talked to them the two days after coming back, then I haven't talked to them anymore
IT- FG – 14-16 boys – TR239	5: I have my mother, but I had blocked her BS: Do you mean that she sent you a request of friendship, you added her and then you blocked her? 5: No, actually I asked her to become freinds at first, but then I realised that she visited my profile quite often, she could see everything I posted and wrote, eveything, and then she asked questions about it, so I ended up blocking her BS: And how did she react? 5: She didn't even notice it
IT- FG – 14-16 boys – TR240	Well, despite having close friends of my parents among my contacts, I avoid to do certain things, such as posting a sentence or a comment. I have friends that swear for example... I avoid doing it. I know they won't tell my parents if I post a certain photo or thing, but it

	would bother me
