

Dear ,

Congratulations on your offer and welcome to the Department of Social Policy! We are delighted you will be joining us this September and can't wait to welcome you to the department and the School.

The Department of Social Policy has an international reputation for excellence. In teaching terms, the latest Complete University Guide and QS University World Rankings placed us #2 in the UK and #3 in the world respectively. In research terms, the latest Research Excellence Framework ranked the Department #1 in the country for world-leading and internationally excellent research. We look forward to welcoming you into the social policy community!

We know that some of you are either finishing your final year in school and or working to save towards your MSc degree so we will be brief and succinct in the information we provide you here.

First, please accept your offer as soon as you can! This helps the Admissions Office with logistical planning for your arrival in September.

Second, please familiarise yourself with the information on the programme webpage, department webpage, LSE Life, Student Service Centre, and follow us on social media to get updates on all things social policy!

Third, you can find out more information on funding here.

Finally, we will be in touch over the summer with a few more emails and activities to prep you for your studies and life in LSE and London! Expect these emails from us over the summer:

June: Welcome from Programme Director/ Welcome from Programme Support Team

July: My Skills and Opportunities

August: Social Policy Community/My Support

September: Welcome Week!

With best wishes,

Department of Social Policy.
